MANOEUVRES: RESERVISTS CALLED UP FOR AUGUST

BERLIN, AUG. 1 (REUTER)-GERMANY'S ARMED FORCES ARE ABOUT TO START WHAT MAY PROVE TO BE THE BIGGEST MANOEUVRES TO BE HELD FOR

MANY YEARS. Huge areas in North-Western Germany will be closed to-day to air traffic for 48 hours, while war planes carry out exercises. Foreign air attaches have not been invited to witness these exercises.

Although, all details of these exercises have been withheld, the size of the prohibited area shows that they will be on a very large scale.

Manoeuvres by motorized troops! will follow and they are being held over a large area in south-east Germany, including parts of Silesia, Sudetenland, Bohemia and Moravia and will extend to the Polish frontier. Reservists have been called up for an early date in August in many districts; private cars have been requisitioned and the shortage of petrol for civilian use is becoming apparent.

ITALIAN TROOPS OPERATE IN PO VALLEY

ROME, Aug. 1 (Reuter)-Simultaneously with the German air exercises, Italian troops will be carrying out manoeuvres in the Po Valley, which will be attended by the German Generals, Gen. Helder and Gen. Werth.

"About 150,000 troops will be involved in action against "an enemy" which is assumed to be coming from the direction of the French frontier.

The exercises will cover an area 220 miles long and 45 miles wide. "VITAL IMPORTANCE"

TARANTO, Aug. 1 (Reuter)-A communique issued at the close of the Italian naval manocurres in the central Mediterranean says that the manoeuvres from July 24 to July 30 were of "vital importance." Nearly all ships, submarines and aircraft of the fleet," also large formations of the air force participated.

The final meeting of high officers was attended also by higher officers of the German mission, headed by Admiral Grossman, and the head of the Spanish mission, Commander Regalado.

Support For Chinese Currency

FUTURE PLANS NEED CAREFUL CONSIDERATION

LONDON, Aug. 1 (Reuter)-With reference to the 'Financial News" report on international support for Chinese currency. Reuter understands there is good reason to believe that France has already agreed in principle. Details have not yet been discussed but the opinion is generally expressed that future plans for support will need most careful consideration in the light of the weakness in modus operandi of the Stabilization Fund as operating hitherto. Financiers emphasize that support for Chinese currency cannot be effective unless it is accompanied by strict control of the Chinese note issue.

It is also suggested that the Stabilization Fund should limit its operations to mercantile transactions and not sell foreign exchange against Chinese notes.

Kowloon Residents About Ferry Crews, Emergencies, Road Unsanitary Conditions

REFUGEES BY MEMBER AT QUARTERLY MEETING

QUESTIONS ABOUT THE ABILITY OF CREWS ABOARD FERRIES in Hongkong harbour to deal with such emergencies" as" fire or collision, and about what the Association proposed to do regarding complaints about unsanitary conditions in certain areas in Kowloon, were asked at the second quarterly open meeting of the Kowloon Residents' Association held on the lawn of St. Andrew's Church yesterday evening.

An interesting suggestion was put forward by a member who described Lamma Island as an appropriate settlement for refugees. It was proposed further that some enterprising landlord would erect houses on the Island.

Another member suggested that to facilitate rescue work at night, each ferry boat carry at least two lifebuoys equipped with Holmes light.

The member also asked if the crews on the ferry boats had to undergo any form of life-saving drill.

Major C., M. Manners, O.B.E., who presided, replying to"this question. Brig. Street also announced said, "I assure you that the crews aboard Star Ferry boats know their stations. All the sailors swim. They are all prepared for trouble, fire or collision."

The same member continued to relate how recently a person of his acquaintance had been aboard a public motor-boat in the harbour. when the engine had stalled and New Zealand are broke out. With the awning on are the extinguishers had been turned to, and these were found empty. Another public motor-boat came to the rescue, and the firesecond boat was also found to be not in working order.

The member asked, "Were these motor-boats are antiquated, some being 1922 models."

. In reply to a question by Major Manners, the "narrator of the motor-boat incident said that the masters of either boat had been dealt with by the Harbour Master. One forfeited ball of $500, and the other was fined $250.

Major Manners promised quiries into the matter. KOWLOON HAWKERS

Another question put to" the meeting was by a member resident in Lock Road who asked what was being done regarding complaints about hawkers and unsanitary conditions in certain areas in Kowloon.

BRITISH MERCHANTS FACE BLEAK PROSPECTS: BUT DEFEATISTS ARE FEW

From Our Own Correspondent

TIENTSIN. July 16.—A. full month has passed since the barriers were clamped down upon the British. Actually it seems a good deal longer. So much—and in a way so little—has happened as to destroy the normal sense of time. The British community, and some of their friends of other nationalities, have adjusted themselves in the meantime to new ways of social life.

Tientsin has had a stormy history, and the British were in the thick of all these storms. Our foster-fathers. the pioneers who laid the foundations of the trade of a port which has also been TOKYO, Aug. 1. (Reuter)-A second only to Shanghai, have grumble. A TIGHT SPOT

"Income Tax In Hongkong:" The Hon. Mr. Sidney Caine Addresses Rotary Meeting

Hongkong Rotarians had an unusual subject for their weekly luncheon in the Roof Garden of the Hongkong Hotel yesterday, when the Hon. Mr. Sidney Caine, Financial Secretary, talked to them on "Income Tax in Hongkong." Mr. Caine dealt with his subject in detail, taking it from the two main angles of how the ordinary man would be affected if income tax were imposed here, and the difficulties of enforcing and collecting the tax against dishonesty and legal loopholes.

was in the Chair, and introduced two new members of the Club, Messrs. H. Tsai and J. Van der Laan. Guests present were:-Hon. Mr. W. J. Carrie, Hon. Mr. H. R. Butters, Col. Rose, Dr. J. M. Yang, Director of the General Income Tax Administration of Chinese Government, Messrs. L. B. Holmes, J. Ralston, T. J. Houston, W. H. Chen. H. G. Wallington and Lo Hung-nien.

MR. CAINE'S ADDRESS

Mr. Caine said, in part:— My subject is "Income Tax in Hongkong." That might mean "Ought we to have Income Tax?" or "Are we going to have Income Tax?" I am not going to attempt to take the answers to either of these questions any further than the recent Committee on Taxation, which expressed its be-"lief in income tax as the best and most equitable of taxes if it could be successfully administered, and from whose Report you may all make your own guesses about the likelihood of its imposition. I am not going to tell you what ideas, if any. Government has on the of subject.

The question I do propose to try and deal with, from the point of view of a private individual who has been both a payer of income tax and a member of the Inland Revenue Department at Home, may be put as: "what would it be talk was to draw attention to the like if we did have income tax in problems involved and to show Hongkong?"

I want firstly to consider how the ordinary man might be affected if an Income Tax existed here and secondly to pose a number of questions about the practical difficulties and consequences of its imposition. I may put forward some ideas as material for answering those questions but shall try to avoid giving any categorical answers.

APPARENT EFFECTS

"(Laughter). some people seem to have thought! a certain standard rate, whether sity for it. it is 5/8d, in the £ or 10% or 5%, does not mean that everybody is going to pay 5/6d. in the £ or 10%, as the case may be, of his total income. An income tax here would no doubt be modelled on the system in the United Kingdom and in other parts of the Empire.

TWO MAIN QUERIES

I turn now to the more difficult and controversial points, I propose to concentrate on two main queries, each with a lot of sidecould the Government catch all the income which ought to pay" tax? and would the tax drive business, industry, etc. away from the Colony?

The answer to the first requires an analysis of the various forms of income which would be taxable. I would divide those into income from real property in the Colony, income from the profits of public companies operating in the Colony, income from salaries drawn by employees, infrom the profits of private business of all kinds, and income from property, investments, etc. outside the Colony.

> The salaries of employees, in- 6-3. cluding of course all Government servants, would be checked by returns from employers who would not generally understate them, since the returns would be checked up against the employer's own

INVESTMENTS ABROAD

The other large class of income in which considerable evasion might take place is income from investment abroad. Here again methods developed on the experience of other administrations would be helpful but might not cover the whole field.

Undoubtedly the close interconnection and frequent communication which normally link Hongkong with South China would impose unusual difficulties in this particular. sphere.

THE BUSINESS VIEWPOINT

I come now to the second main question, would business frightened away? There is a class action which is known "avoidance" of tax in contradistinction to "evasion," and which consists of perfectly legal action causing the transfer of the income outside the scope of the taxing

The primary purpose of this that the question of introducing income tax is not one to which one can answer "Yes" or "No" on the spur of the moment. In the short time available I hope I have succeeded in proving that the is a complicated matter. I hope that ton the with nett 34. I have not also proved it be a very dull one.

HUNGARY IS AFRAID OF HITLER

NO INTERVENTION IN MAJOR WAR

LONDON, July 18 (By Air Mail) -Admiral Horthy, Hungarian Regent, is expected in certain circles to tell Hitler during the next few days that he cannot count Hungarian armed intervention in a major war. Perhaps.

Hungarlan neutrality would command overwhelming support among his people. --

REVERSAL OF FEELING There has been a complete reversal of feeling since last September, when Magyar troops would have cheerfully marched shoulder to shoulder with Hitler's regiments into Czecho-Sloyakla, and no doubt, have answered the call to whatever other front called for their help.

German pressure grows daily on Hungary in efforts to capture more of the non-Axis trade, to benefit increasingly from the fertility of her soil. Hitler's will is reflected in new legislation and in the protests made whenever an unfriendly reference creeps into the Hungarian Press.

As a result of an appeal from the Shumehun Rural Welfare Centre the Honolulu China Emergency Medical Relief Committee responded by organizing a seed and Plant Committee and an allocation of $250.00 U.S. was made as the initial fund.

Dr. Fred K. Lam, the Chairman of the China Emergency, Medical Relief Committee, Honolulu, writes. "I am glad to learn that you are continuing your efforts in helping the farmers and refugees in this relief work. More power to you. Our committee has authorised an expenditure of $250.00 for the purchase of seeds under the direction of Mr. H. L. Chung, and Dr. D. Y. Chang for trans-shipment to you in the near future"

· First Shipment The first shipment of first class seeds have already arrived. They were donated by well-wishers. among whom are Messrs. Wong Yen, Mow Sing Wai and the Hawaiian Products, Ltd.

BAGGAGE SYSTEM NOW BEING ADOPTED BY COMPANIES

Special to the "Hongkong Daily Press" In June the "Hongkong Daily Press" exposed the "baggage racket" conducted by local coolies on the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Company's piers. At the time a plan by Major C. M. Manners. O.B.E. manager of the Wharf and Godown Company, was also published, and consisted of a central baggage clearing station in the godowns.

The steamship companies are now eventually beginning to cooperate and the Blue Funnel Line has put such a system into effect, though it does not patronize the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown's piers.

The American President Line made their first attempt last Saturday on the departure of the President Coolidge for the United States. However, according to the local manager, Mr. T. B. Wilson, the baggage system they are attempting to adopt will not be confined to Chinese passengers or to ships leaving this port homeward bound. It will apply to all passengers, first, second, tourist class, etc. and to all ships arriving at and departing from Hongkong.

"This Line is run for passengers: they come first. Therefore, we are trying to give them the best service in our power," remarked Mr. Wilson.

It is hoped that the many other large steamship companies will see the advantages in the new system suggested and adopted by three leading shipping personalities in the Colony. In this way the waterfront and shipping piers may 'cleaned up "from the congestion, inefficiency and "squeeze," and be supervised in an orderly and business-like manner.

On the other hand, if Wang Ching-wel fails, the preconceived categories become illusory, and the whole of China will remain till the end of this cataclysmic chapter, within the first category, while the long lease of life-or rather freedom from intervention--which the Soviet gained in 1932 will continue, though, perhaps, in a much modified form.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN DEFENDS FOREIGN POLICY IN COMMONS DEBATE

Criticism By Opposition: Delay In Soviet Pact Agreement And British Position In Far East

Britain's Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, in a strong and eloquent statement, defended the British Government's foreign policy during the debate on Foreign Affairs in the House of Commons on Monday.

The Premier dealt with the whole international situation in answering criticisms made by the Liberal and Labour Opposition and maintained that His Majesty's Government was pursuing a policy in the best interests of world peace.

Mr. Chamberlain referred in his speech to the negotiations with the Soviet, the guarantees given against aggression, Germany, Danzig, Poland and the Far East.

LONDON, Aug. 1 (Reuter)—Initiating the foreign affairs debate in the House of Commons yesterday, Sir Archibald Sinclair, leader of the Liberal Opposition, referred to the recent speech by Viscount Halifax in which the latter said: "Our immediate task is to resist aggression."

"The accredited leaders of both the Opposition parties, in language equally clear, plain and downright, have endorsed that speech," declared the Liberal Leader. "Mr. Chamberlain has not yet done so." (Conservative cries of "Oh!")

"Let me say quite bluntly," continued Sir Archibald, "that an impression exists that the Prime Minister is still inclined to appeasement and is less resolute in his resistance to aggression than Viscount Halifax."

Sir Archibald declared that they stood in urgent need of reassurance about the negotiations with Russia, and he thought the House should not adjourn for a long period, until those negotiations had been concluded.

It was his contention that a full account of the negotiations should. have been given to the House a long time ago.

FOG OF SUSPICION

Sir Archibald Sinclair declared that he had been convinced by the speeches of M. Stalin and other Russian statesmen, and by the resolutions passed by the organs of the Government, that the Soviet United States in the Far East," he believed in agreement in the inter- cried. ests of the Russian people.

"I very much regret the Gov ernment's decision to accord ever de facto recognition to German rule in Czecho-Slovakia by applying for an execuatur for a British Consul in Prague, but I am a least glad that the Government has stood firm and has not yielded to the German demands to recognise the annexation de jure.

"The situation in Czecho-Slovakia is very tense, and the spark might easily be struck in that country which might set all Europe ablaze.

LONDON, Aug. 1 (Reuter)—"If war should come and whichever side claimed the victory, nothing is more certain than that the victor and vanguished will glean a gruesome harvest."

These words were used by the British Prime Minister in concluding his reply to the criticisms offered by the Liberal and Labour Opposition during Monday's debate on Foreign Affairs in the House of Commons.

Mr. Chamberlain, in dealing with European affairs, emphasized that the negotiations proceeding were of "a highly delicate character" and that one had to be careful of what one said.

The market opened with prices unchanged for all deliveries as compared with Saturday's closing quotations. The market ruled dull and quiet during the morning session owing to the Rubber Exchanges in London and New York having been closed on Saturday last. Activity by dealers and speculators was at a low ebb, but some fair enquiries for "actuals" by consuming centres were in evidence. During the afternoon, however, steadier conditions were prevalent due to some enquiries fortrade account, which, coming on a narrow market, caused pries to advance by 1/16 to 1/8 cent for all deliveries. Closing tone was quietly steady. The following Figures were released by the Statistical Bulletin of the International Rubber Regulation Committee:

NEW YORK COTTON

The market moved upward on better, advices, together with trade, foreign and commission house buying. Interest centres on the next loan announcement, which is expected soon.

NEW YORK RUBBER

The market crept up on higher foreign cables. The decline in London rubber stocks also assisted the advance in prices, CHICAGO WHEAT

Continued reports of unfavourable weather—chiefly heat—and light receipts were offset by liquidation and selling. Some sources express optimism regarding the future price trend.

NEW METHOD OF STORING BLOOD

Voluntary Donors Receive $20

The Negri Bembilan Government recently purchased, at a cost of $350, a new refrigerator which. by the use of a new process, will preserve placental blood (available at delivery) for use in cases where blood transfusion is necessary. This will obviate the difficulty of organising a body of voluntary donors of blood.

The new method, recently made known to the medical profession, is one of far-reaching importance. Referring to the new method, the Negri Semblian Finance Committee, in their proceedings recently issued, say: "A method of collecting and storing placental blood suitable for use in hospitals has only recently been published and immediate adoption of this method would save many infant and adult lives every year."

,000 Men In Mass Flight

TRAINING TRIP OVER FRANCE

LONDON, July 15 (By Air Mail) -More than 1,000 men of the R.A.F., including 300 pilots, are to take part in the second training flight by British bombers over France, which will probaby take place next week.

The number of planes taking part has not been decided, but is expected to exceed considerably the 120 bombers which flew over France on Tuesday.

Medium and heavy bombers, with full war-load, will again be used the long-range craft flying to a point in the extreme south of France and returning to their home bases non-stop-a journey of about 2,000 miles.

The aircraft will fly only over French territory, and will not at any point pass over the Mediterranean.

TO POLAND NEXT

LONDON, July 15 (By Air Mail) An era of Anglo-French air, land and sea co-operation, on a scale never before known between two different nations in times peace, dawned yesterday with the successful completion of flights by 120 R.A.F. bombers over French territory. The supreme efficiency and the clockwork precision with which the exercises were performed-and that at only a few hours' noticesets the seal on vastly more ambitious plans for the future. Other allied countries, including Poland, are to be taken into the scheme.

What concerns the City and the investor, who must ultimately call the tune, is not the social policies of Mr. Savage's Government, but their economic and financial consequences. So far the results have not been pleasing. New Zealand's sterling balances having suffered a heavy drain;

Case For Lumpromise

Whenever the credit of our Dominions is in question, concern extends far beyond the holders of the loans themselves. Without probing all the causes which have contributed to the problem which New Zealand has to face, one may legitimately feel that there is as much need for the Government of New Zealand to appreciate the position in this country as for our fully realising New Zealand's difficulties.

The vital question at the moment, seems to be whether the authorities in "New" Zealand are willing to pursue a course which will reassure investors as to the future.

PRIME MINISTER EXPLAINS TOKYO AGREEMENT: WARNING TO JAPAN

LONDON, Aug. 1 (Reuter)—"Let me say once again that the Government will not reverse its policy in the Far East at the request of another Power.
